ONE HUNDRED ARE LAID OFF

Southern Pacific Shopmen Surprised by an Order Dismissing from the Railroad Service 20 Per Cent of the Men Now on the Pay Rolls—Retrenchment Is a Severe Blow.

Following a reduction in time in the Southern Pacific shops, which reduced the work week from 60 to 40 hours, the local railroad officials announced today that about 100 men are to be laid off tonight. This further retrenchment means a twenty per cent reduction of the working force in the motor power department of the Southern Pacific at this point.

The present shop force numbers between 500 and 600 men, which is a much smaller force than was employed a year ago. For the past six months there has been a gradual reduction in the working force and the hours of the work week have been cut at various times. A short time ago the work day, which normally has meant ten hours, was reduced to eight hours and the week was reduced from six to five days, no work being done on Saturday.

At the time this reduction was made, it was thought that no further reduction in hours would be made and the announcement of the further retrenchment today cast a pall of gloom over the railroads. Many of the employees are of the opinion that it is uncalled for and it is merely a move on the part of the railroad company to deter the employees against further strike action. While the reduction occurs simultaneously with the strike conference which begins today in San Francisco, the railroad officials deny that it has any connection with the pending trouble. In stating the cause of the reduction the officials say that it has been made necessary by the continued depression in the general business of the country.

pany's holdings of the stock of more than thirty subsidiaries affected will occupy at least three months. It is expected, so that the readjustment will not be complete prior to December 1.

Standard Oil stock was quoted today at $625 per share, transaction being restricted to wash dealings. A price of $310 a share for ex-subsidaries, or without rights to participation in the distribution of subsidiaries, was made by a venturesome trader on the "curb" but as no intelligent appraisal could be made worth while of the stock it was put up on outside holdings.

The New Jersey company, in addition to acting as the holding corporation, conducts a large oil business and has extensive property holdings. The company, however, has never made a public report and no opportunity has been afforded for gauging the value of its business and tangible assets.

An official of the company said today that the only element of doubt as to the general effect of re-organization on the present stockholders lay in the ability of the constituent companies, operating independently, to produce so large a total of profits as has been possible under the present form of management. As to whether this can be done, he said, only the future will disclose.

DE GROOT HAS A CHANGE OF HEART

As deputy Sheriff Ellsworth started to escort Theodore De Groot back to the dungeon this morning, the prisoner halted the officer by saying:

"You need not mind taking me back there; I think I would rather work on the road. I can plainly see that I have been a fool. It will be much better for me to work ten days than to lay in that dungeon 20 days. Since yesterday I have changed my mind."

Yesterday the man refused to work on the road, stating that he preferred the dungeon life. He was confined in the dungeon all day yesterday, but was permitted to sleep in his regular cell.

SCOWCROFT GARMENT FACTORY

The Scowcroft garment factory, which was started a few weeks ago, is now in full operation but the new machinery which is to be used in enlarging the plant has not yet arrived. This machinery, which will enable the company to add overalls to the product of the factory, is expected to be installed within a short time when an additional force of employees will be necessary.

The continued and increasing demand for underwear which is reaching the company from various parts of the intermountain country indicates that the company made no mistake in opening the plant in this city.

DECAPITATED HEAD IN COURT

Marinette, Wis., Aug. 31.—The decapitated head of the husband of Mrs. Mary Vertelewski of Pond, Wis., was exhibited in court today. Mrs. Vertelewski's preliminary examination on the charge of murdering her husband. He was found dead in their home with a fractured skull several weeks ago.

The defendant exhibited no emotion when the severed head was displayed. It was cut from the body after an autopsy three days after interment and then placed in alcohol.

Mrs. Vertelewski asserts that her husband died as a result of a fall down stairs.

Brickyard Lacks Coal—Scarcity of coal at the Aikville brickyard, south of this city, is causing the company a great deal of annoyance. More than a million unburned bricks are now waiting in the kilns for the arrival of fuel. Coal has been ordered but for some reason has not made its appearance. Many orders for brick are being held up because of the lack of fuel. With the arrival of coal, fires will be lighted in three of the kilns which are now ready to be burned.

SCALES AND MEASURES TEST

Willard Hansen, state food inspector, is expected to return from Washington, D. C., within the next few days and begin a general inspection of all the scales and measures used in the state.

J. S. Carver, secretary of the state pure food bureau, stated this morning that the state inspector will return with the necessary equipment for testing weights and measures in the most efficient manner.

Without attempting to reflect upon the honesty of any retail dealer in the state, Mr. Carver stated that very few scales now in use can be considered accurate.

"This does not imply," said the secretary, "that the customer is getting the worst of a bargain, for the scales may give him more than the weight intended. A merchant may have two pairs of scales in his store, one of them weighing too light and the other too heavy. The fault is in the scales, not in the merchant, but the government demands that the weights and measures be accurate and the merchant is the one held responsible. I believe there are very few merchants in the state of Utah that would attempt to cheat a customer by giving him light weight, but at the same time there are very few scales in the state that would stand the government test."

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

PETERSON.—The first death due to typhoid fever which has occurred during the present year, was recorded last night when Mrs. Hulda Peterson, wife of Nels C. Peterson, 1905 Grant avenue, died at 11:55 at the Deane hospital, following a five-weeks' illness. Mrs. Peterson was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lindsay and was born December 25, 1883. She survived by her husband, parents and four children. The body was removed from the hospital to the Linnquist undertaking parlors and the funeral arrangements will be announced later.

The Peery hotel has 100 rooms, thirty with private baths, and is finely equipped throughout. Gold Leaf Brand Lard

"The Chemist Says It's the Best."

It is with great pride that we call the attention of the public to the report of State Chemist Harms as submitted to Hon. Governor Spry for 1910. Page 149 in this report we read:

"We have in this state at present one packing establishment under government supervision; namely, the Ogden Packing & Provision Co. This company is putting out a first-class grade of lard, equal in every respect, if not superior, to the best lard produced in the East."

And we were the only packing concern deserved worthy of mention in his report.

For fine pastries and cooking where absolutely the best is required insist on your dealer sending "Gold Leaf"—Accept no other and you're sure of best results.
